PETITIONING THE COURT*To issue a summons.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

| Violation Number | Nature of Noncompliance                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|-------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1                       | Mandatory Condition # 2: The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| 2                       | Special Condition # 19: You shall abstain from alcohol and shall submit to testing (including urinalysis and Breathalyzer), as directed by the supervising probation officer, but no more than six tests per month, in order to confirm continued abstinence from this substance. |

Supporting Evidence: Lamont Brooks was arrested on March 22, 2015, for driving under the influence of alcohol, in violation of mandatory condition #2 and special condition #19 of his supervised release.

According to the Washington State Patrol police report #5Z0343401, Mr. Brooks was pulled over after traveling at a high rate of speed. The officer made contact with Mr. Brooks and could smell an overpowering odor of intoxicants coming from the vehicle. The officer asked Mr. Brooks how much alcohol he had to drink that evening, and he responded, "Not too much." Mr. Brooks complied with the officer's request to participate in a field-sobriety test and failed. Mr. Brooks also provided a breath sample into a portable breathalyzer test. The reading came back at .152, almost twice the legal limit of .08.
